TO CAMBRIDGE CITY COUNCIL . . .

REGARDING THE UNACCEPTABLE CONDITION OF HARRIS STREET: September 1987

We who live on or adjacent to Harris Street are very disturbed by it's deplorable state. Our property values are affected by it's condition and our cars suffer as well. We urge you to repair it.

We have been told that Harris Street is an unaccepted way; however, 230 streets in Cambridge fall into this category. After visiting a number of them, we can state with confidence that none looks like Harris Street. Most are in fine condition, and many allow parking only by permit. We ask that you use your resources to have it repaired as quickly as possible.
