

City of Cambridge

In City Council

May 10, 1921.

WHEREAS:

Many abuses have grown out of the granting of licenses to hawkers and peddlers who ply their trade in the vicinity of Cambridge and Mt. Auburn Cemeteries on Memorial Day, and

WHEREAS:

In recent years it has become apparent that the proper observance of the day has been interfered with by those whose interests are wholly commercial, it is

ORDERED:

That the Chief of Police be and hereby is requested to rigidly enforce the law on Memorial Day in so far as it relates to the time hawkers and peddlers are allowed to stand in the vicinity of the Cambridge and Mt. Auburn Cemeteries.
