IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor William H. Walsh

January 23, 1989

WHEREAS: There is a growing awareness across the United States that administrators in colleges and universities and leaders of the municipalities in which these institutions are located must speak with and not at, work with and not against each other, if there is to be that real partnership for progress to which the National League of Cities refers; and

WHEREAS: The University Committees Caucus (UCC) of the National League of Cities has announced plans for a full-day pre-conference seminar entitled, "The University-Community Connection: Partnerships for Progress" on Saturday, March 11, 1989 as part of the annual NLC Congressional City Conference, and this concern is of paramount priority here in the City of Cambridge; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That His Honor, the Mayor, urge as many members of this Council as possible to attend that seminar, and direct the Assistant to the City Council, Sandra Moretti, to poll the members as quickly as possible as to their availability to attend and make the necessary arrangements for registration therefor using the Congressional City Conference registration form.
