IN CITY COUNCIL

April 8, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: This April, the City of Cambridge, and cities and towns across the country will set aside a day to celebrate the planet Earth; and

WHEREAS: Earth Day is a reminder to us all that we are the caretakers of a precious and fragile ecosystem which is the both source of and the home for all life on this planet; and

WHEREAS: On Thursday, April 25, 1991, Cambridge's Morse School will hold its annual Voluntary School Beautification Day in celebration of Earth Day, and to welcome the arrival of Spring; and

WHEREAS: On this special day, the teachers and children of the Morse School volunteer their time to bring beauty and cleanliness to their school and its grounds by cheerfully performing such tasks as picking up trash, clipping hedges, and washing graffiti from the walls; and

WHEREAS: In the past, a number of the school's wonderful neighbors have joined in this effort, as have children from the Cambridge Community Schools Program; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council commend the volunteer efforts of the children and teachers of the Morse School, its principal, Mr. James Coady, and of the school's neighbors and all its other helpers, in taking care of their small portion of this planet Earth; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the volunteers at the Morse School Beautification Day.

In City Council April 8, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
