CHARLES LAW

In 1946, Charles Law established Suffolk University's athletic program and remained as the University's Director for 32 years.

Law coached basketball at Suffolk for 30 years, winning the admiration of his players and peers as "Dean of New England Basketball Coaches" and directing his last two teams to NCAA Division III post season tournament competition, completing his career with 295 victories.

Serving also as the President and Treasurer of the New England Basketball Coaches Association, Charles Law was nominated for membership to the Citizen Savings Athletic Foundation's Coaches Hall of Fame.

Under the leadership of Charles Law, the Suffolk University Athletic Department expanded. Over the years, Law also coached the varsity golf and baseball teams.

CHARLES MELANSON

As A lifelong resident of Cambridge, Massachusetts, Melanson has been associated with the Suffolk University Athletic Department since 1967.

Melanson served as a team manager for the varsity basketball and baseball teams during his volunteer tenure at Suffolk University and remains as a friend to past student athletes as well as those he currently serves.
