

To the

Honorable Board of Aldermen and City Council, of the City of Cambridge,

Gentlemen:-

Respectfully represent Bridget Fahy, of Cambridge, that under an order of the City of Cambridge, dated September 25 th. 1895, a part of your petitioner's estate, situated at the corner of Charles street and Third street, in said City, was taken.

That your petitioner was aggrieved at the estimate of her damages, for said taking, and duly petitioned a former government of said City, to consider the same.

That after hearing thereon the original amount awarded your petitioner was increased; that your petitioner is still aggrieved in the sum awarded her, and herein petitions your Honorable Body to grant her a re-hearing, for the purpose of presenting to your Board evidence to satisfy you that the sum awarded is totally inadequate to compensate your petitioner for the damages she has suffered for the taking of a part of her estate as aforesaid; and your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.

Bridget Fahy,

By her Attorney,

John F. Cronan
