WHEREAS: The Cambridge Camping Association, which was established in 1893, believes a healthy camping experience stimulates lasting social, physical and educational growth; and

WHEREAS: The Association is committed to enabling any child who wants to attend camp to do so. In particular, Cambridge Camping ensures that children from low-income, minority and other traditionally excluded backgrounds are afforded this opportunity; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge Camping Association's Cambridge Adventure and Daybreak day camps provide more than 200 Cambridge children and youth with exciting summer and winter programs that support positive personal and social development. The goals of these camps are to build communities that enable children and youth to develop good character and to value citizenship. In addition, other Cambridge Camping Association programs enable hundreds of children to attend overnight camps throughout New England; and

WHEREAS: Cambridge Camping Association is a vital part of the local community and cooperative network of like-minded organizations that support families and individuals in Greater Boston and Massachusetts. In order to better serve children and families, Cambridge Camping successfully engages key staff at schools, government and independent social service agencies, foundations and camps; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record proclaiming the month of July 2006 as Cambridge Camping Month and urge all citizens of Cambridge to give the Association whatever support possible so that their good work of the past will continue in the present and long into the future; and be it further
