WHEREAS: The fee for a permit to restrict parking for the purpose of allowing a moving van access to an address is $25.00; and

WHEREAS: The fee for a permit to allow access for a moving van is more than doubled when a resident lives on a street with metered parking; and

WHEREAS: It is unreasonable to require residents to pay radically different fees for the same service based on where they live; and

WHEREAS: The substantially higher rates for permits on commercial streets may deter some residents from obtaining these permits, which could result in increased traffic congestion or even traffic hazards on these busy streets; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the Director of Traffic, Parking and Transportation with a view in mind to waive the so called meter bag fee for Cambridge residents who live on streets with metered parking, and are requesting a permit to temporarily restrict parking on a street for the purpose of allowing access for moving vans.

In City Council June 14, 1999.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of six members.
