WHEREAS: The Honorable Mary B. Newman, State Representative from Cambridge to the General Court from 1953 to 1970, will be honored by the John W. McCormack Institute of Public Affairs as the recipient of the John Joseph Moakley Award for Distinguished Public Service at a ceremony on November 14, 1994 at the University of Massachusetts at Boston; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Newman was widely acknowledged by Republicans and Democrats alike as a legislator who got results by the dint of her careful research for legislative answers to problems and her respect for her colleagues in the process of decision-making; and

WHEREAS: Governor Francis W. Sargent appointed Mrs. Newman in 1971 as Secretary of Manpower Affairs in his Cabinet; and

WHEREAS: President Gerald Ford named Mrs. Newman as New England Regional Director of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare in 1976; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Newman began a long and new career in teaching in 1977 as a distinguished lecturer in management at the University of Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Newman will be honored on November 14 by remarks from Senate President Bulger, Lieutenant Governor Cellucci, Speaker Flaherty and Congressman Moakley, together with special tributes from former House Speakers David Bartley and Robert Quinn; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Newman and her late husband, Edwin B. Newman, have long been productively involved in Cambridge civic, social, charitable, and religious causes; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Newman, guided by the principles of her strong Quaker faith, is a person of seemingly limitless energy, compassion and accomplishment; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council expresses its great pleasure and pride on the occasion of this recognition of Mrs. Newman's distinguished career; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council declare Monday, November 14, 1994 as Mary B. Newman Day in Cambridge.

In City Council October 17, 1994.
