WHEREAS: The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. devoted his life to the eternal struggle for justice in our world; and

WHEREAS: The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. fought for a world where people of all colors and all creeds would live together in peace and harmony, and never abandoned this ideal of the 'beloved community'; and

WHEREAS: The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. knew that this beloved community could not be achieved through hate and violence, but only through love and nonviolence; and

WHEREAS: The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. taught the world the power of nonviolence to melt the meanest heart and to shake the foundations of the world's most powerful nation; and

WHEREAS: This work is today continued by his widow, Mrs. Coretta Scott King, through her work as President of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent and Social Change and the Martin Luther King, Jr. Foundation; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Coretta Scott King inspires those of us who continue the struggle for racial and socioeconomic justice; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Coretta Scott King will be the keynote speaker at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Twentieth Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration breakfast, to take place Friday, February 11, 1994 at 10:00 a.m. at the MIT Stratton Student Center; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council encourages all of the residents of Cambridge to support the MIT Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Breakfast, and hopes that we all can find inspiration in the life of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and in the continued work of Mrs. Coretta Scott King.
