

City of Cambridge

Calendar Item # 21

3.
IN CITY COUNCIL

February 25, 1991

March 4, 1991

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: The Harvard Chess Team, comprising of Andrew H. Serotta '91, Daniel H. Edelman '91 (team captain), Mark E. Glickman, and Vivek Rao '91-'92, won the Pan-American Intercollegiate Chess Championship in December of 1990 for the third consecutive year; and

WHEREAS: The Harvard Chess Team completed the competition with a perfect score of 6-0, beating 30 four-person squads from colleges and universities from the United States, Canada, and Latin America; and

WHEREAS: The Harvard Chess Team not only won the tournament but also simultaneously organized the entire event at the Cambridge Charles Hotel which especially required the dedication and hard work of the team captain, Daniel H. Edelman; and

WHEREAS: It is important to note that the 45 year old Harvard Chess Team has been instrumental in promoting the game of chess throughout the New England area by organizing this tournament with over two hundred participants including ten high school teams, by scheduling visits by world champion Gary Kasparov and former world champion Anatoly Karpov and by planning the 20th annual Harvard Open in early May of 1991; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council offers its sincere congratulations to the Harvard Chess Team for its third consecutive win of the Pan-American Intercollegiate Chess Championship and especially commends the team's promotion of chess at Harvard, and throughout Cambridge and New England.

In City Council March 4, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

Joseph E. Connarton

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk

DUEHAY
MYERS

3

Resolution for the Harvard Chess Team

Whereas: The Harvard Chess Team, comprising of Andrew H. Serotta '91, Daniel H. Edelman '91 (team captain), Mark E. Glickman, and Vivek Rao '91-'92, won the Pan-American Intercollegiate Chess Championship in December of 1990 for the third consecutive year.

Whereas: The Harvard Chess team completed the competition with a perfect score of 6-0, beating 30 four-person squads from colleges and universities from the United States, Canada, and Latin America.

Whereas: The Harvard Chess team not only won the tournament but also simultaneously organized the entire event at the Cambridge Charles Hotel which especially required the dedication and hard work of the team captain, Daniel H. Edelman.

Whereas: It is important to note that the 45 year old Harvard Chess team has been instrumental in promoting the game of chess throughout the New England area by organizing this tournament with over two hundred participants including ten high school teams, ~~and~~ by scheduling visits by world champion Gary Kasparov and former world champion Anatoly Karpov and by planning the 20th annual Harvard Open in early May of 1991.

Resolved: That the Cambridge City Council offers its sincere congratulations to the Harvard Chess Team for its third consecutive win of the Pan-American Intercollegiate Chess Championship and especially commends the team's promotion of chess at Harvard, and throughout Cambridge and New England.

City of Cambridge

3.

IN CITY COUNCIL

February 25, 1991

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: The Harvard Chess Team, comprising of Andrew H. Serotta '91, Daniel H. Edelman '91 (team captain), Mark E. Glickman, and Vivek Rao '91-'92, won the Pan-American Intercollegiate Chess Championship in December of 1990 for the third consecutive year; and

WHEREAS: The Harvard Chess Team completed the competition with a perfect score of 6-0, beating 30 four-person squads from colleges and universities from the United States, Canada, and Latin America; and

WHEREAS: The Harvard Chess Team not only won the tournament but also simultaneously organized the entire event at the Cambridge Charles Hotel which especially required the dedication and hard work of the team captain, Daniel H. Edelman; and

WHEREAS: It is important to note that the 45 year old Harvard Chess Team has been instrumental in promoting the game of chess throughout the New England area by organizing this tournament with over two hundred participants including ten high school teams, by scheduling visits by world champion Gary Kasparov and former world champion Anatoly Karpov and by planning the 20th annual Harvard Open in early May of 1991; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council offers its sincere congratulations to the Harvard Chess Team for its third consecutive win of the Pan-American Intercollegiate Chess Championship and especially commends the team's promotion of chess at Harvard, and throughout Cambridge and New England.

Order # 3

CW # 21 S-370

Councillors Duehay and Myers resolutions congratulating the Harvard Chess Team.

In City Council,

February 25, 1991

*Charter Right exercised
by Councillor Walsh
3/4/91 Order adopted*