

30

85 Prescott Street
Cambridge MA 02138
August 30, 1996

Cambridge City Council
795 Mass. Ave.
Cambridge, MA 02139

Dear Members of the City Council:

Please find enclosed a letter published by the Cambridge Chronicle on August 29, 1996.

Having attended the six meetings of Library 21, I think it is unfortunate the newspapers do not provide updates.

Certainly the Main Library is for the whole city so all residents should be informed. Regular progress reports and consistent publicity are important to make the council order effective. That would be a complex task. Is this the time to finance support services for this dedicated group?

Sincerely,

Barbara D. Petery

Barbara D. Petery

RECEIVED
CITY CLERK
SEP 4 - 4 AM 11:51
CAMBRIDGE MA
96

85 Prescott Street
Cambridge, MA 02138
August 22, 1996

Letters to the Editor
The Cambridge Chronicle
John Breneman, Editor
Somerville, MA 02144

To the Editor:

Surprise! There really were six meetings of the citywide library advisory committee this summer. Unfortunately, none of the newspapers reported on them.

Now called Library 21, this committee began the task of reviewing the services we need for the expanded Main Library. Greater public interest and a request from the city council could convince the newspapers there is merit in an update.

We've had twelve weeks of this new process; it should not be overlooked.

Barbara D. Petery

Consent communication #30

5-427

Communication was received from Barbara Petery, transmitting her concern that there are no regular progress reports and publicity for the expanded Main Library Committee now called Library 21.

In City Council September 9, 1996.

Referred to City Manager

Copy sent 9-11-96

mc