

J. W. COVENEY,
AUCTIONEER

And REAL ESTATE AGENT,

78 CAMBRIDGE STREET.

East Cambridge,

March 30 1886

Charles E. Henshaw &
Chairman,
Committee on Roads & Bridges
Board of Aldermen.

Sir, I beg leave to again call the Committee on Roads & Bridges - attention (I thought you) to the land on Tremont St. near the City Station. There are about 60,000 fourteen thousand feet. The owner desires to sell in a lump -
I believe he might be induced to sell & wait for suit your appropriation for payment, if you be no appropriation now available. As the season for selling is now approaching, I desire to make a sale & respectfully ask for something consideration of the matter.

Yours truly
J. W. Covey agent

J. W. COVENEY,
AUCTIONEER

And REAL ESTATE AGENT,

78 CAMBRIDGE STREET.

East Cambridge, March 30 1886

My dear Sir. I send you a communication in regard to the land on Summit St.
I would ask the Committee action if there be any at once, as the season for selling is upon us. & I desire to act quickly.
Will you please give me an answer after the ~~first~~ end of your meeting.

Yours truly
J. W. Covey
Admire

J. W. Covey

Communication #23
from J. W. Loveney 228 regard to land on Tremont st.

Feb 30. 1896