MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: The United Nations will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary on October 24, 1995, and on October 24, 1994 will commence its year long celebrations of this anniversary; and

WHEREAS: The world continues to seek the road of peace and international cooperation through the United Nations; and

WHEREAS: During its tenure, the united Nations has built a most impressive record of achievement, and faces yet extraordinary challenges in preventing and resolving conflict, protecting the earth's environment, elevating standards of living through economic development, and promoting humane and democratic values; and

WHEREAS: The work of the United Nations has a direct impact upon the people of the United States, and indeed all the peoples of the world, directly affecting their security, health, economic viability, and guarantee of basic freedoms; and

WHEREAS: Thousands of communities across the country and beyond have organized festivals, ceremonies, lectures, and seminars to celebrate the United Nations' forty ninth birthday and commencement of celebrations of its fiftieth anniversary; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That The Cambridge City Council does hereby proclaim October 24, 1994, "United Nations Day" throughout the City of Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That all citizens of Cambridge are encouraged to observe and participate in the activities of United Nations Day, at home, work and school, and throughout our community.

In City Council September 26, 1994.
