Duehay

Whereas tour buses shuttled passengers from the Sheraton-Commander Hotel to the Hynes Auditorium in Boston throughout the day on Saturday, October 8 and Sunday, October 9;

Whereas this arrangement caused untold congestion and noise in the surrounding neighborhood;

Resolved that the City Manager report to the City Council the circumstances surrounding these arrangements and take appropriate steps to see that permits are not issued again for such occurrences.

Whereas a recent news article quoted Boston University as being interested in buying a soccer field next to the Charles River for their own use from the Metropolitan District Commission;

Whereas there are only a few locations in Cambridge, such as Magazine Beach, which would seem likely spots for such a field;

Resolved that the City Manager be and hereby is requested to notify Boston University and the MDC of its adamant opposition to such a proposal;

Further resolved that the City Manager report back to the City Council what he has found out in the course of communicating the city's opposition.

59.

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the Public Works Department to keep the Cambridge Common and Longfellow Park free of grafitti at all times
