Dear Russ:

At the City Council meeting of September 21, 1992 the City Council was in receipt of another communication from Joseph R. Indelicato, Jr. of Central Square News, 21 Lunden Street #134 Wollaston, Massachusetts requesting permission to sell newspapers, magazines, cigarettes, soda and lottery tickets at the newsstand at the corner of Massachusetts Avenue and Western Avenue.

This item was referred to the City Manager and the Law Department by the City Council.

Your kind attention in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

D. Margaret Drury

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

SEP 17 AM 10:45

CAMBRIDGE MA.

The undersigned respectfully pray

That I Joseph R Indelicato Jr. of Central Square News at 1-1A Central Square would like permission granted by the City Council a permit, Bond, and License to sell at this location, a wood structure newstand equipped with counters, shelves, utilities, electric and Telephone from the ground at the corner of Mass. Ave and Western Ave the following items, any or all these items, Newspapers, Magazines, Cigarettes, Soda, and Lottery Tickets and pay to the City a fee comparable to other such newstands in Cambridge as rent for the use of City property which the stand was built on, and a mural painted and recognized by the Cambridge Arts Council.

Since the early 1970's there have been several owners who have purchased this structure, none of whom were required to go through any city bidding process. Each had purchase and sales agreements, The City does not own the stand, nor does the city run the stand, The City did not build the stand it just permitted the use there of. This business was bought with good intentions, to clean up the stand and the corner it stands on by building a respectable business, this has now put two people out of work and created a financial burden on a family who's savings are invested, not on a full line Grocery store as suggested by a neighbor, Its hard to do so in a four foot by seven foot structure, just a newstand selling the same items as other newstands in the City. Trying to help people be employed by selling enough products to employ them and which are sold at many other stores at the same area.

THANK YOU

J. R. Indelicato Jr.
