

City of Cambridge

IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor Walsh

January 22, 1990

WHEREAS: During the week of Sunday, March 11 - Saturday, March 17, the Agassiz School and the Agassiz Neighborhood Council will present a special series of events to honor the memory of the late Miss Maria Louise Baldwin who, by her appointment as school master by the City of Cambridge in 1889, was the first black female to occupy such a position throughout New England; and

WHEREAS: Surrounding the high point of the week, the rededication of Baldwin Hall in the Agassiz School on Thursday evening, March 15, will be numerous events which include, among others, recreating the Agassiz of Miss Baldwin, i.e., a spelling bee, elocution contest, popular games, music and costumes of the era. Now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Council expresses enthusiastic support for this celebration and applauds the creativity and efforts of both the Principal of the Agassiz School, Katherine B. Cox, and the Co-ordinator of the Agassiz Neighborhood Council, Terry DeLancey, for their leadership in producing what promises to be a most successful and singularly educational celebration; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare two duly engrossed copies of this Resolution and transmit same to Ms. Cox and Ms. DeLancey.
