

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Oct. 16. 1861-

Resolved that the public convenience and necessity require that a new street be laid out in Ward Four, from Putnam Street to Bay Street, so called:

Therefore Ordered, That a street extending from Putnam Street to Bay Street be laid out as a public street, and a private way heretofore known as Green Street, to be known and designated hereafter as "Green Street", and that the same be laid out and described as follows, to wit:-

Beginning at the North Easterly face of a stone house standing on the Easterly side of Putnam Street, at its intersection with the North Easterly line of said Green Street, thence South Easterly seven hundred and eighty two and a half feet to the North Easterly face of a stone house standing on the North Westerly side of Bay Street.

Said Green Street to be forty feet in width and lying on the South Westerly side of the line above described, as shown upon a Plan made by W. A. Mason and W. S. Barbour, dated May 11th, 1861, and now on file in the office of the City Clerk:- and that, for this purpose, so much land as lies within the lines of said Green Street, as delineated on said Plan, be taken for public use and be laid out and established as a public highway, as aforesaid.

Ordered, That, inasmuch as no injury is sustained by any person by the taking of said land for the purpose above mentioned, no damages be awarded to any person.

Adopted and sent down for execution.
Attest.
