

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

MASSACHUSETTS

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

JOHN W. LYONS, MAYOR

March 12, 1940

To the Honorable, the City Council:

Frank L. Mallahan, a member of the old Common Council in the years 1910 and 1911, died on January 12, 1940.

During his period of public service in the Common Council he served his constituents faithfully and well. Although he adopted a profession which called for his absence from home most of the time, he never lost interest in the public affairs of the city.

I respectfully recommend that suitable action be taken by your honorable board as a tribute of respect to his memory, in which action I shall be glad to join.

Yours respectfully,

John W. Lyons
Mayor

Frederick H. Burke

WHEREAS Frederick H. Burke City Clerk

Notice has been received from His Honor, the Mayor, of the death on January 12th 1940 of Frank L. Mallahan, it is fitting and proper that notice be taken of the sad event.

Born in Cambridge Mr. Mallahan attended our local schools. He was deeply interested in the affairs of our city and during the years 1910 and 1911 he was elected a member of the Old Common Council serving his constituents faithfully and well.

He was a member of the Hendricks Club and the Monahassett Club and later chose the stage as his life's work. He was a great comedian and was acclaimed as such wherever he went.

Interested in giving and trying to make others happy he gave most liberally of his time and talents and was always the first to offer his services. While his work sometimes took him away from the city he was always cognizant of what was transpiring in his native city. He was well liked by all who knew him and his friendly manner and pleasing smile made him easy to approach. Now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That this City Council as well as the citizens of Cambridge realize the loss sustained in the death of Frank L. Mallahan and would have this tribute to his memory spread upon the records.
