"Harvard Square Night" has been created in conjunction with other city-wide activities planned for Cambridge business districts during the Bay State Games, July 18-21. On behalf of the Harvard Square Business Association, I would like to make a special request for a blanket permit to hold a sidewalk sale on this occasion open only to our members and other established retail businesses and restaurants in Harvard Square.

In asking you to grant a blanket permit for a special sidewalk sale on Saturday, July 20, we hope to provide an added attraction for the 5,000 athletes and their families and friends who want to come back to Cambridge on Saturday night. This special request does not require closing off any streets, since the summer sale will take place on the wide plazas and sidewalks in the square, and will not block access to restaurants or storefronts in Harvard Square. We expect street performers will cooperate to create a pleasant atmosphere that evening in the square. "Harvard Square Night" is intended to be low-key and offer established businesses an opportunity to showcase their wares for the large crowd of people attending the Bay State Games in Boston and Cambridge.

Thank you for your cooperation in planning another successful event in Harvard Square.

Sincerely yours,

Sally Alcorn
