IN CITY COUNCIL¹¹

April 28, 1980

MAYOR DUEHAY

- WHEREAS: The transportation system of the United States is the lifeline of the country's economy; and
- WHEREAS: The efficient functioning of the transportation system is essential to the conservation of energy as well as to the safe and prompt movement of goods and people; and
- WHEREAS: The transportation system must keep pace with the growth of the country and be flexible and adaptive to new challenges; and
- WHEREAS: We are fortunate to have in Cambridge a major facility of the United States Department of Transportation--- the Transportation Systems Center at Kendall Square which conducts research and development in all modes of transportation; and
- WHEREAS: The week of May 11 through May 17 has been proclaimed National Transportation Week for 1980; and
- WHEREAS: The Transportation Systems Center is having an open house for the public May 17 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with numerous displays, models, vehicles and samples of its laboratory work; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Francis H. Duehay, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby declare May 11-17 Transportation Week in Cambridge, and further urge all residents to participate in the observance by visiting the Transportation Systems Center.
