Honorable Alice K. Wolf
Mayor of Cambridge, Massachusetts

Dear Alice:

In accordance with a vote of the City Council, the Committee you appointed to recommend a suitable public memorial for Mary Conlan recommends the naming of the small park north of the Cambridge Common between Massachusetts Avenue and Waterhouse Street and across from the Christian Science Church and 1558 Massachusetts Avenue in her honor. The Committee also recommends that the City of Cambridge establish the Mary Conlan Trust Fund as one of the city's trust funds to beautify and maintain the park. The Committee intends to raise money to create this trust fund. The Committee will give an initial amount of money to the city this week so that the fund account can be created immediately.

I intend to introduce a council order on Monday, June 25, 1990 to carry forward the recommendation of the Committee.

The Committee wishes to thank James Maloney and Claire Spinner of the Finance Department for their assistance in making this recommendation possible.

Sincerely yours,
