WHEREAS: The hallmark of a healthy community is the respect and support that its many subgroups accord each other; and

WHEREAS: The contributions of adults who are parents to the future of the community through raising children are widely noted and celebrated, but even though children cannot flourish without the support of the entire community, the contributions of the childfree often go unnoticed; and

WHEREAS: Childfree adults in Cambridge have been particularly supportive to the children of Cambridge through their volunteer efforts and their willingness to support the generous amount of property tax allocated to our public schools and contributed by all residents regardless of parental status; now therefore be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record acknowledging and appreciating the many contributions made by childfree Cantabrigians to the children of Cambridge and the future of our community; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this resolution be distributed and posted in appropriate locations.
