COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: The arts have long been invaluable in developing and instilling confidence in self-expression; and

WHEREAS: Young people, especially those in highly urban areas, do not always have opportunities to expose themselves to art or to develop their artistic talents; and

WHEREAS: DREAMERS, INC. is an innovative program that allows youths to engage themselves in the creation and choreographing of exciting performances; and

WHEREAS: DREAMERS, INC. has proven to be an effective way to reach out to young people and allow them to develop very important skills in communications and self-expression; and

WHEREAS: DREAMERS, INC. has performed successfully "The Legend of Christmas Dawn", a play by L. Ruce Lumpkins, at the YWCA on December 17 and 18, 1992; and

WHEREAS: All benefitted from the program for its unique approach to the performing arts; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council hereby extends its congratulations to Mr. Robert Bridgeman, and the many performers for their successful production of "The Legend of Christmas Dawn". May you have many more successes and continue to reach out to thousands of young people in our city.
