

City of Cambridge

8.

Amended Order

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 10, 1994

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WALSH
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: On Friday, November 5, 1993, Cambridge lost one of its leading lights and most important citizens, a man who demonstrated a lifelong devotion to his community, particularly to its youth and to its elderly residents; and

WHEREAS: In his 88 years among us, LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. lived an extraordinary life, having emigrated from his native Warwick, East Parish, Bermuda at the age of 16; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR., had broad-ranging interests and abilities, having been an active participant in the Congressional campaigns of Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill and John Fitzgerald Kennedy, a great sports aficionado who took joy in tennis, sailing, and cricket, and a man with a passion for the poetry of Pushkin; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. was among the early founders of the Cambridge Community Center and of the original Riverside Neighborhood Association, and started the first program in Cambridge for physically challenged and disabled people at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church; and

WHEREAS: As part of his unceasing concern for Cambridge's children, LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. initiated one of the city's first youth tutorial programs, served at the Youth Services Bureau of the City of Cambridge as an advocate and protector of youth, and as the city's liaison to what is now the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School; and

WHEREAS: Countless African-American, Hispanic, and Portuguese young people have felt his supportive influence, his skills in reaching out to young people having been well tested in times of tension and unrest; and

WHEREAS: Long after his retirement, he continued his involvement and interests in community affairs, it having been said of him, "He was loved by most, but respected by all"; now therefore be it

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. was a great friend to Cambridge's senior community, and was critical in establishing elderly housing at 2 Mt. Auburn Street; and

RESOLVED: That upon the determination of an appropriate location at a square in the City that had relevance to his life, said location shall heretofore be known as "LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. SQUARE", so that all who pass and linger there shall remember this great community servant and leader.

In City Council January 10, 1994.

Adopted as amended by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

8.

Original Order

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 10, 1994

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: On Friday, November 5, 1993, Cambridge lost one of its leading lights and most important citizens, a man who demonstrated a lifelong devotion to his community, particularly to its youth and to its elderly residents; and

WHEREAS: In his 88 years among us, LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. lived an extraordinary life, having emigrated from his native Warwick, East Parish, Bermuda at the age of 16; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR., had broad-ranging interests and abilities, having been an active participant in the Congressional campaigns of Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill and John Fitzgerald Kennedy, a great sports aficionado who took joy in tennis, sailing, and cricket, and a man with a passion for the poetry of Pushkin; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. was among the early founders of the Cambridge Community Center and of the original Riverside Neighborhood Association, and started the first program in Cambridge for physically challenged and disabled people at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church; and

WHEREAS: As part of his unceasing concern for Cambridge's children, LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. initiated one of the city's first youth tutorial programs, served at the Youth Services Bureau of the City of Cambridge as an advocate and protector of youth, and as the city's liaison to what is now the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School; and

WHEREAS: Countless African-American, Hispanic, and Portuguese young people have felt his supportive influence, his skills in reaching out to young people having been well tested in times of tension and unrest; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. was a great friend to Cambridge's senior community, and was critical in establishing elderly housing at 2 Mt. Auburn Street; and

WHEREAS: Long after his retirement, he continued his involvement and interests in community affairs, it having been said of him, "He was loved by most, but respected by all"; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That upon the determination of an appropriate location by the Cambridge City Council, said location shall heretofore be known as "LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. SQUARE", so that all who pass and linger there shall remember this great community servant and leader.

City of Cambridge

8.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 10, 1994

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: On Friday, November 5, 1993, Cambridge lost one of its leading lights and most important citizens, a man who demonstrated a lifelong devotion to his community, particularly to its youth and to its elderly residents; and

WHEREAS: In his 88 years among us, LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. lived an extraordinary life, having emigrated from his native Warwick, East Parish, Bermuda at the age of 16; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR., had broad-ranging interests and abilities, having been an active participant in the Congressional campaigns of Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill and John Fitzgerald Kennedy, a great sports aficionado who took joy in tennis, sailing, and cricket, and a man with a passion for the poetry of Pushkin; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. was among the early founders of the Cambridge Community Center and of the original Riverside Neighborhood Association, and started the first program in Cambridge for physically challenged and disabled people at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church; and

WHEREAS: As part of his unceasing concern for Cambridge's children, LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. initiated one of the city's first youth tutorial programs, served at the Youth Services Bureau of the City of Cambridge as an advocate and protector of youth, and as the city's liaison to what is now the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School; and

WHEREAS: Countless African-American, Hispanic, and Portuguese young people have felt his supportive influence, his skills in reaching out to young people having been well tested in times of tension and unrest; and

WHEREAS: LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. was a great friend to Cambridge's senior community, and was critical in establishing elderly housing at 2 Mt. Auburn Street; and

WHEREAS: Long after his retirement, he continued his involvement and interests in community affairs, it having been said of him, "He was loved by most, but respected by all"; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That upon the determination of an appropriate location by the Cambridge City Council, said location shall heretofore be known as "LEROY H. JOHNSON, SR. SQUARE", so that all who pass and linger there shall remember this great community servant and leader.

Dechay, Myers, Russell, R29
Consent Order #8
Sullivan, Tooney, Walsh
Mayor Reeves re: Death resolution of Leroy H. Johnson, Sr., lifelong Cambridge citizen devoted to community, youth and the elderly.

Order adopted as amended

In City Council,
January 10, 1994