Dear Mr. Sullivan:

Pursuant to a communication from the Secretary of State re: "New Philharmonia of Boston, Inc.," I made an investigation. The locus is suitable.

The applicants live at the addresses given and have not been engaged in the illegal sale of alcoholic beverages as defined in Chapter 138, Section One nor have they been engaged in any other business or vocation prohibited by law.

"The above named applicants have not been engaged in the illegal selling of alcoholic beverages, as defined in Section One of Chapter 138, or in keeping places or tenements used for illegal gaming, or in any other business or vocation prohibited by law, or are persons of ill repute."

Respectfully submitted,

William J. FitzMaurice

New Philharmonia of Boston, Inc. is organized and operated exclusively for the educational and charitable purposes and seeks to further music in the greater metropolitan Boston area in any and all ways and more specifically:

1. To create a chamber orchestra which will be known for high artistic standards and excellence in performance;
2. To provide the people of the greater metropolitan Boston area with the opportunity to hear music not normally performed by other groups in the area;
3. To make available at reasonable cost to people in other communities, both within and without the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, concerts of high quality which the residents of those communities would not otherwise have an opportunity to hear;
4. To furnish educational opportunities to young people of Massachusetts through concerts, workshops, master classes and the like;
5. To present to the public performances of contemporary music; and
6. To carry on any other business or other activity related to the foregoing purposes which may be lawfully carried on by a corporation organized under Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 180, whether or not related to those referred to in the foregoing paragraphs; provided that any and all activities undertaken by the corporation shall be exclusively in furtherance of its educational and charitable purposes.
