

City of Cambridge

11.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 25, 1994

COUNCILLOR WALSH
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge, like all other cities, needs to find methods to save money, while at the same time must continue necessary services; and

WHEREAS: The Town of Reading has recently consolidated the responsibility for payroll, bills payable, personnel and benefits administration and financial reporting from the School Department to the Town's Finance and Accounting Department, thus enabling the School Department to eliminate some positions, and actually save money by shifting certain resources from the School Department budget to the appropriate town agency to assist in the additional work load; and

WHEREAS: This consolidation is one of many examples that could be brought forth by the City Manager in an attempt to save money, which could include consolidation of various commissions, among other examples; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to give study and consideration to consolidations within the various departments and commissions of the City of Cambridge, with the goal of saving tax money without interfering with services.

In City Council April 25, 1994.
Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

11

April 25, 1994

COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge, like all other cities, needs to find methods to save money, while at the same time must continue necessary services; and

WHEREAS: The Town of Reading has recently consolidated the responsibility for payroll, bills payable, personnel and benefits administration and financial reporting from the School Department to the Town's Finance and Accounting Department, thus enabling the School Department to eliminate some positions, and actually save money by shifting certain resources from the School Department budget to the appropriate town agency to assist in the additional work load; and

WHEREAS: This consolidation is one of many examples that could be brought forth by the City Manager in an attempt to save money, which could include consolidation of various commissions, among other examples; and

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to give study and consideration to consolidations within the various departments and commissions of the City of Cambridge, with the goal of saving tax money without interfering with services.

Jack From
349 4307
2/27/94

City of Cambridge

11.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 25, 1994

COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge, like all other cities, needs to find methods to save money, while at the same time must continue necessary services; and

WHEREAS: The Town of Reading has recently consolidated the responsibility for payroll, bills payable, personnel and benefits administration and financial reporting from the School Department to the Town's Finance and Accounting Department, thus enabling the School Department to eliminate some positions, and actually save money by shifting certain resources from the School Department budget to the appropriate town agency to assist in the additional work load; and

WHEREAS: This consolidation is one of many examples that could be brought forth by the City Manager in an attempt to save money, which could include consolidation of various commissions, among other examples; and

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to give study and consideration to consolidations within the various departments and commissions of the City of Cambridge, with the goal of saving tax money without interfering with services.

Sullivan Russell

Consent Order #11

CM-126

Councillor Walsh re: Saving tax money without interfering with services.

Order Adopted

In City Council,

April 25, 1994