Sir:

Thomas F. O'Connor
Deputy Superintendent

Enclosed you will find a report of the department's enforcement effort for public nuisances. The report defines the locations of incidents, crime and business district. Since January 2002, there have been 2000 calls for service in Central Square, Harvard Square and Porter Square. As a result of increased calls for service in these areas, directed patrols were assigned to combat the identified problems of panhandling, drinking in public and drug activity. Since January 2000, there have been 3000 directed patrols to the various business districts. Please feel free to call me if you have any additional questions or concerns.
