- WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the City Council that the Cambridge Housing Authority will hold their Second Annual Senior Banquet for the graduating students from the Work Force Program; and
- WHEREAS: This program is a comprehensive life-skills and vocational training program for low-income youth who live in Cambridge public housing; and
- WHEREAS: The mission of the Work Force Program is to break the cycle of generational poverty that often consigns low-income youth to lives of economic and educational disadvantage; and
- WHEREAS: This program gives the youth rich, multi-dimensional opportunities to flourish personally and professionally; and
- WHEREAS: The children become exposed to a variety of paid work settings in which they may test newly acquired skills and explore numerous career paths; and
- WHEREAS: In the course of the Work Force experience, students learn to forge their own pathways to success, expanding possibilities for themselves and their communities; and
- WHEREAS: The graduation ceremony will take place on Thursday, May 23, 2002 from 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. in the 20 Chimneys Room at the MIT Student Center; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record congratulating: Fabiola Casseus, Shavarsh Morrissey, Antonio Ortiz, Jr., Marie Louise St. Germain, Vasty Michel, Pierre Ripert, Keith Delgado, Kenny Joseph, Ricky Gachette, Rose Jean-Charles, Rooberlyne Cius and Samantha Fontellio with regard to their graduation and participation in the Work Force Program and thank them for all their hard work and determination; and be it further
