

City of Cambridge

In Board of Aldermen, December 26th, 1899.

The Joint Standing

Committee on Roads and Bridges, to which was recommitteed the subject of the proposed laying out of Inman Court to Jones Alley,

Reports

Recommending

the adoption of the accompanying order laying out said Court, according to the description given in the order of notice. The taking and laying out of this Court at the width of 40 feet, is done at the urgent request of the School Committee, who ask for the increase to protect the Harvard School from any possible future obstruction of its light on the southerly side, by the erection of a building near the line of the City land.

For the Committee,

John T. Shea
