Eleanor Stanley

58, led DAV chapter

Eleanor A. (Butt) Stanley died unexpectedly March 19 in Somerville Hospital. She was 58.

Born in Belmont, she attended Cambridge schools and was a long-time Cambridge resident before moving to Somerville several years ago. She was a former traffic supervisor for the City of Cambridge.

She was past commander of Disabled American Veterans Chapters 10 and 16, past mother advisor to Brighton Assembly #62, I.O.R.G. member of the order of Eastern Star and V.F.W. Auxiliary Post #8818.

She was the wife of Frederick B.; mother of Robert F. of Arlington, Michael F. of Somerville, Diane L. Accardi of Somerville and Donna L. Papazian of Watertown and the late Frederick B. Jr.; nana of Robert M. and Torrie J. Accardi and Christina T. and Jonathan J.S. Papazian and the late Diane Papazian.

A Mass was held at St. Polycarp's Church and interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Everett.

Arrangements were made by the G. F. McKenna and Son funeral Home.

require that the physician — not the patient — contact the company, either directly or through a local sales representative to obtain medications for patients. The medications are then delivered to the physician's office, and the doctor distributes them to the patient.

Unfortunately, this creates problems in Massachusetts. Under state law, Chapter 94C section 9c, doctors, nurses and other health care professionals cannot dispense medication, except for samples, through
