Latino Youth Recognition Evening

In 1995, responding to the need for providing proper recognition to Latino students who have distinguish themselves academically, EL MUNDO NEWSPAPER and THE BOSTON RED SOX, as responsible members of Boston's diverse corporate community, jointly created and initiated the first ever LATINO YOUTH RECOGNITION DAYS at Fenway Park.

The program was designed to acknowledge Latino middle school students in a setting that would truly have an impact. Not only did recognizing the students at Fenway Park provide for a unique and unforgettable event for the honored students, but it also encouraged academic success by rewarding Latino students and their friends with tickets to see the Boston Red Sox.

On the evening of May 16th, EL MUNDO NEWSPAPER, would like to give thanks to THE BOSTON RED SOX, the students and their parents as well as the many school officials who have all played such a vital role in making the program such an overwhelming success.

It is with great pleasure that we extend the enclosed invitation so that you too, can be a part of this memorable evening.

Come Celebrate!
