

City of Cambridge

3.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 6, 1997

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
VICE MAYOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR REEVES
MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: Joseph F. O'Connor, Secretary of the Corporation of the Charles Stark Draper Laboratory, Inc. of Cambridge, nine years ago while he was Draper's Vice President was the principal founder of the Kendall Community Group; and

WHEREAS: The Kendall Community Group is an innovative business-community partnership dedicated to supporting youth programs in the Area IV neighborhood of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: The Kendall Community Group pools the funding of a number of business, research and educational institutions for distribution to three local community service agencies:

- The Community Art Center;
- The Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House
- Tutoring Plus of Cambridge

WHEREAS: Contributions from the Kendall Community Group - monetary, in-kind and volunteer - are an important source of support for these three agencies; and

WHEREAS: On December 18, 1996, the Kendall Community Group and the agencies it serves presented to Joseph F. O'Connor an appreciation award "for his vision and wisdom in founding this unique collaboration and (his) stewardship of the Group over the past nine years;" now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council hereby commends Joseph F. O'Connor for his visionary leadership in founding and nurturing the Kendall Community Group, widely recognized as the preeminent business-community partnership in Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council recognizes the many other distinctive contributions Joseph F. O'Connor has given to the well-being of the community he works in: namely, the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce, the Cambridge Rotary Club, Junior Achievement of Massachusetts, the Cambridge Partnership for Public Education, the Cambridge Occupational Education Advisory Committee, Dental Services of Massachusetts, the Cambridge Family Y, the Mount Auburn Foundation, Inc., the Cambridge Historical Society; and the Cambridgeport Bank; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council wishes to draw attention to the extraordinary example Joseph F. O'Connor has provided to all those who live and work in Cambridge by presenting this award to him at a meeting of the City Council arranged by the Mayor.

In City Council January 6, 1997

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK

97 JAN -2 AM 10 06
Duehay - for Council meeting of Jan. 6 - please deliver to
city clerk
CAMBRIDGE MA.

Whereas Joseph F. O'Connor, Secretary of the Corporation of The Charles Stark Draper Laboratory, Inc. of Cambridge, nine years ago while he was Draper's Vice President was the principal founder of the Kendall Community Group;

Whereas the Kendall Community Group is an innovative business-community partnership dedicated to supporting youth programs in the Area IV neighborhood of Cambridge;

Whereas the Kendall Community Group pools the funding of a number of business, research and educational institutions for distribution to three local community service agencies:

- * The Community Art Center
- * The Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House
- * Tutoring Plus of Cambridge

Whereas contributions from the Kendall Community Group - monetary, in-kind and volunteer - are an important source of support for these three agencies;

Whereas on December 18, 1996 the Kendall Community Group and the agencies it serves presented to Joseph F. O'Connor an appreciation award "for his vision and wisdom in founding this unique collaboration and [his] stewardship of the Group over the past nine years;"

Resolved that the Cambridge City Council hereby commends Joseph F. O'Connor for his visionary leadership in founding and nurturing the Kendall Community Group, widely recognized as the preeminent business-community partnership in Cambridge;

Further resolved that the Cambridge City Council recognizes the many other distinctive contributions Joseph F. O'Connor has given to the well-being of the community he works in: namely, the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce, the Cambridge Rotary Club, Junior Achievement of Massachusetts, the Cambridge Partnership for Public Education, the Cambridge Occupational Education Advisory Committee, Dental Services of Massachusetts, the Cambridge Family Y, the Mount Auburn Foundation, Inc., the Cambridge Historical Society, and the Cambridgeport Bank;

Further resolved that the Cambridge City Council wishes to draw attention to the extraordinary example Joseph F. O'Connor has provided to all those who live and work in Cambridge by presenting this award to him at a meeting of the City Council arranged by the Mayor.

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council recognizes the many other distinctive contributions Joseph F. O'Connor has given to the well-being of the community he works in: namely, the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce, the Cambridge Rotary Club, Junior Achievement of Massachusetts, the Cambridge Partnership for Public Education, the Cambridge Occupational Education Advisory Committee, Dental Services of Massachusetts, the Cambridge Family Y, the Mount Auburn Foundation, Inc., the Cambridge Historical Society; and the Cambridgeport Bank; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council wishes to draw attention to the extraordinary example Joseph F. O'Connor has provided to all those who live and work in Cambridge by presenting this award to him at a meeting of the City Council arranged by the Mayor.

City of Cambridge

3.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 6, 1997

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: Joseph F. O'Connor, Secretary of the Corporation of the Charles Stark Draper Laboratory, Inc. of Cambridge, nine years ago while he was Draper's Vice President was the principal founder of the Kendall Community Group; and

WHEREAS: The Kendall Community Group is an innovative business-community partnership dedicated to supporting youth programs in the Area IV neighborhood of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: The Kendall Community Group pools the funding of a number of business, research and educational institutions for distribution to three local community service agencies:

- The Community Art Center;
- The Margaret Fuller Neighborhood House
- Tutoring Plus of Cambridge

WHEREAS: Contributions from the Kendall Community Group - monetary, in-kind and volunteer - are an important source of support for these three agencies; and

WHEREAS: On December 18, 1996, the Kendall Community Group and the agencies it serves presented to Joseph F. O'Connor an appreciation award "for his vision and wisdom in founding this unique collaboration and (his) stewardship of the Group over the past nine years;" now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council hereby commends Joseph F. O'Connor for his visionary leadership in founding and nurturing the Kendall Community Group, widely recognized as the preeminent business-community partnership in Cambridge; and be it further

Born, Davis, Galluccio, Reeves
Consent Order #3,

Russell, Sullivan, + Tranter/Klon

Councillor Duehay re: Commendation to Joseph F. O'Connor for his visionary leadership in founding and nurturing the Kendall Community Group, widely recognized as the preeminent business community partnership in Cambridge.

2-R

In City Council January 6, 1997

ORDER ADOPTED