

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, Oct. 3. 1860.

Ordered, That due notice be given that this Board will at its regular meeting on Wednesday, the 17th inst., at eight o'clock P.M., take into consideration the expediency of discontinuing so much of Raymond Street as was laid out and the lands of Henry Potter and Solomon Sargeant, where and where all persons opposed to the discontinuing of that portion of said Street may appear and be heard.

Attest:

Justin A. Jacobs, City Clerk.

City of Cambridge, Oct. 13, 1860, I hereby certify that I caused an attested copy of the foregoing Order to be published in the Cambridge Chronicle on the 6th inst., and again this day; and, on the 1st inst., I posted a like copy on the outer front door of the City Hall.

Justin A. Jacobs, City Clerk.

Cambridge, Oct. 15, 1860, I hereby certify that on the 10th inst., I left an attested copy of the foregoing Order at the last and usual place of abode of each of the following persons, to wit:-

Henry Potter, Abel Willard, W. A. Chas. Wm Carter, Asa Gray, Wm L.
Stearns, Steward of Harvard College, G. P. Bond, Jacob N. Bates, Thomas Stearns and Henry A. Fuller; and on the same day delivered a like copy to James W. Galt, 24 in hand; and on the 9th inst., I left a like copy at the last and usual place of abode of Solomon
