

ALFRED E. VELLUCCI
MAYOR

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE
MASSACHUSETTS

August 25, 1976

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS:

School Committeeman Donald Fantini, through his initiative and personal family finances waged a long and hard hitting campaign to provide for a Fundamental School within the City of Cambridge, which school would provide a departure from present teaching methods in that it would stress a return to the basic skills which has served our City and our children so well in the past, and

WHEREAS:

The Fundamental School places great stress on time honored values of discipline, personal responsibility, moral development and a respect for the institutions of family and country, and

WHEREAS:

The extensive campaign waged by Donald Fantini met with great opposition from many persons who were dedicated to a more liberal approach to education,

THEREFORE

I, Mayor Alfred E. Vellucci, Chairman of the School Committee of the City of Cambridge, hereby publicly congratulate Donald Fantini for his outstanding contribution to the education of school children of the "University City" urge all citizens of the City of Cambridge and fellow members of the School Committee to give their full co-operation to the staff of the School Committee in carrying out this dynamic new program for the education of our children.

Alfred E. Vellucci,
Mayor of the City of Cambridge.

ALFRED E. VELLUCCI
MAYOR

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE
MASSACHUSETTS

August 25, 1976

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS:

School Committeeman Donald Fantini, through his initiative and personal family finances waged a long and hard hitting campaign to provide for a Fundamental School within the City of Cambridge, which school would provide a departure from present teaching methods in that it would stress a return to the basic skills which has served our City and our children so well in the past, and

WHEREAS:

The Fundamental School places great stress on time honored values of discipline, personal responsibility, moral development and a respect for the institutions of family and country, and

WHEREAS:

The extensive campaign waged by Donald Fantini met with great opposition from many persons who were dedicated to a more liberal approach to education,

THEREFORE

I, Mayor Alfred E. Vellucci, Chairman of the School Committee of the City of Cambridge, hereby publicly congratulate Donald Fantini for his outstanding contribution to the education of school children of the "University City" urge all citizens of the City of Cambridge and fellow members of the School Committee to give their full co-operation to the staff of the School Committee in carrying out this dynamic new program for the education of our children.

Alfred E. Vellucci,
Mayor of the City of Cambridge.

364
M. Vellucci - Proclamation on Donald Fantini

In City Council,

August 30, 1976