

City of Cambridge

18.

IN CITY COUNCIL

December 20, 1976

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: Ms. S. B. Sutton has culminated our Bicentennial Celebration by authoring the lovely and important book, "Cambridge Reconsidered", and
- WHEREAS: The publication of this book, in conjunction with the Cambridge Bicentennial Corporation, the M.I.T. Press and a good number of good people who helped to bring it to fruition, has helped to etch the spirit of our City in a lasting form for generations to come, and
- WHEREAS: The "tossed salad" that is Cambridge is there for all to savor, from the encampment of Washington's troops, to the construction of the Bullfinch Court House in East Cambridge, on down to the great divide over the Kennedy Library and hundreds of other items in between and beyond, and
- WHEREAS: "Cambridge Reconsidered" is a tribute to our City and its people that we shall always cherish, now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council give tribute in return to Ms. S. B. Sutton and express our appreciation and admiration to her for the grace and style that is "Cambridge Reconsidered", and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to be presented to Ms. S. B. Sutton.

In City Council December 20, 1976
Adopted by the affirmative vote of 8 members.
