Lincoln Street,

Cocon. 22. 1873

To The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Cambridge

The Undersigned Residents and Owners of Land abutting on Linnean Street respectfully object to, and remonstrate against the widening of said Street, as proposed at the meeting of your Board on October 22^d last, also against laying edge stones in the Street, as in their opinion the public safety and convenience do not require any increased width, the Street being now more than forty feet wide at the narrowest point, and the destruction of trees and shrubs by such widening and laying edge stones would be a serious injury to the present attractive appearance of the Street, and wholly uncalled for at the present time.

In Board of Aldermen, Nov. 19, 1873,

The Committee on Roads and Bridges to which were recommittees papers in relation to laying out, and establishing lines of Lincoln St.

Having reconsidered the matter and again carefully examined the ground,

Reports

That in view of the strong opposition manifested by the several abutters on that part of the street requiring widening, it is inexpedient to take any further action in that direction at present, and your Committee recommends that the Superintendent of Streets be instructed to suspend action on the order for setting of edgestones on said street.
