

City of Cambridge

21.

IN CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR VELLUCCI

NOVEMBER 7, 1988

- WHEREAS: The number one goal for Education in America is to provide every ~~American Child~~ ^{in America} with an exposure to true educational excellence; and
- WHEREAS: Education means not only developing the minds of our students but also nurturing their moral character as well; and
- WHEREAS: The availability of public education has provided all our citizens the foundation for the Country's economic vitality, national security, standard of living and system of democratic government; and
- WHEREAS: The strengthening of our public schools is an important investment in the future; and
- WHEREAS: The quality of public schools depends upon community commitment and involvement; now therefore be it
- ORDERED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci Mayor of the City of Cambridge proclaim American Education Week November 13 - 19, 1988 and urge all Cambridge Citizens to affirm their support of public schools and to recognize the importance of investing in our future through education.

City of Cambridge

21.

IN CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR VELLUCCI

NOVEMBER 7, 1988

- WHEREAS: The number one goal for Education in America is to provide every child in America with an exposure to true educational excellence; and
- WHEREAS: Education means not only developing the minds of our students but also nurturing their moral character as well; and
- WHEREAS: The availability of public education has provided all our citizens the foundation for the Country's economic vitality, national security, standard of living and system of democratic government; and
- WHEREAS: The strengthening of our public schools is an important investment in the future; and
- WHEREAS: The quality of public schools depends upon community commitment and involvement; now therefore be it
- ORDERED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci Mayor of the City of Cambridge proclaim American Education Week November 13 - 19, 1988 and urge all Cambridge Citizens to affirm their support of public schools and to recognize the importance of investing in our future through education.

In City Council November 7, 1988.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of 7 members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

City of Cambridge (original)

21.

IN CITY COUNCIL

MAYOR VELLUCCI

NOVEMBER 7, 1988

*children
America
(per Mayor's
7/10/88)*

- WHEREAS: The number one goal for Education in America is to provide every American-Child with an exposure to true educational excellence; and
- WHEREAS: Education means not only developing the minds of our students but also nurturing their moral character as well; and
- WHEREAS: The availability of public education has provided all our citizens the foundation for the Country's economic vitality, national security, standard of living and system of democratic government; and
- WHEREAS: The strengthening of our public schools is an important investment in the future; and
- WHEREAS: The quality of public schools depends upon community commitment and involvement; now therefore be it
- ORDERED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci Mayor of the City of Cambridge proclaim American Education Week November 13 - 19, 1988 and urge all Cambridge Citizens to affirm their support of public schools and to recognize the importance of investing in our future through education.

Order #21

S-671

M. Vellucci order re: proclaiming November
13-19, 1988 as American Education Week.

In City Council,

November 7, 1988

11-7-88

M. Vellucci

order Adopted

✓✓
7