COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services presented the John Phillip Sousa Advocacy Award to Elizabeth Morrison at its annual meeting which took place at the Holiday Inn in Somerville on September 11, 1996; and

WHEREAS: The John Phillip Sousa Award is given annually to a senior citizen who has actively advocated for the interests and ideals of senior citizens; and

WHEREAS: Betty Morrison took a leading role in engaging city councillors and state legislators in the issues surrounding expiring use housing and, as a result, has seen passage of important legislation (although not yet signed into law); and

WHEREAS: The award is named for John Phillip Sousa, himself a tireless advocate for the interests of seniors in many diverse settings; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council congratulates Betty Morrison for receiving the John Phillip Sousa award, for her civic achievements over many years, for the leadership she has shown in 1996 in sharpening interest and gaining results in the battle to save affordable housing not only for Cambridge's seniors but also for many disabled and needy residents, and for the inspiration she provides to others.
