IN CITY COUNCIL

SEPTEMBER 26, 1988

VICE MAYOR WOLF
COUNCILLOR D. SULLIVAN

- WHEREAS: Councillor Walsh has presented to the Council an order that calls for the Creation of a Comprehensive City-Wide Zoning Plan, an idea that is theoretically attractive; and
- WHEREAS: The success of developing a comprehensive zoning plan is dependent upon
- (1) Substantial citizen concern and input
 - (2) A clear general policy base set by the City Council prior to development of such a plan; and
- WHEREAS: The development of such a plan, even under ideal circumstances, would require substantial time and substantial funds; and
- WHEREAS: At least one previous effort to accomplish this end was unsuccessful, squandering hundreds of hours of people's time and energy and the City's funds; and
- WHEREAS: While such plans were being developed, the face of Cambridge under present zoning could change significantly; and
- WHEREAS: The Community Development has already started a planning process, neighborhood by neighborhood, bringing the concerns and solutions close enough to the neighborhood residents into the process willingly: now therefore be it
- ORDERED: That the City Manager direct the Community Development Department
- (1) To continue its neighborhood planning process, ensuring that a broad group of citizens in each neighborhood participate, and recognize that it is the desire of the City Council to have the neighborhood parts mesh into a fair, usable whole
 - (2) To develop for the City Council a set of overriding city wide policy goals for its consideration to be applied to neighborhood rezoning efforts.
 - (3) To submit to the City Council a proposal for a reasonable, partial development moratorium to be in effect while this planning effort is underway.
