Whereas, draft telecommunication policy reform bills are being discussed in Washington.

Whereas, the two proposed drafts contain dangerous implications for the future of public, educational and governmental agencies the City's ability to require franchise fees from video service providers.

Now therefore, Be it Resolved that the City Council direct the Clerk to send the attached letter to our Senators ~~urging them to~~ expressing concern that the current policy reform bills do not sufficiently protect the public.
