MOTHERS' DAY 2001 - MAY 13, 2001

BOSTON COMMON - 1-3pm

MILLION MOM MARCH-MASSACHUSETTS

RALLY FOR SENSIBLE GUN LAWS

Sensible gun laws, safe kids

Join us from 1-3pm near the Gazebo in Boston Common, steps away from the statehouse, to ask lawmakers locally and in Washington, DC for Sensible Gun Laws for Safe Kids. Learn about local leaders who are making a difference, and how you can contribute to their efforts across the state.

Since the overwhelming success of Million Mom March, Mothers' Day 2000, the Founders began a grassroots organization. Million Mom Marchers are working hard to keep the pressure on Congress and continue to educate the public to the loopholes that allow children and criminals to obtain handguns. Modeled after the very successful chapter-based, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), the Million Mom March has already received over 230 chapter applications from across the United States. In fact, there are several chapters here in Massachusetts.
