

Whereas Taught English and French in Dakar from 1978 until he was awarded the Fulbright Exchange
Worked as English Club Supervisor and

1992-1993 Fulbright Exchange Teacher at CRLS teaching in the Foreign Language Department ; and

Whereas 1993-1994 remained at CRLS teaching in the Foreign Language, Language Arts and Social Studies departments. El Hadji implemented a Humanities curriculum on African Literature: Culture and Customs which he had voluntarily developed in 1992-93. This curriculum has had a very positive influence in the high school and supports the diversity within the school of which we are very proud; and

Whereas During his tenure at CRLS he has been:

Advisor to the Black Student Union 1992-94
Advisor to the East African Club 1992-94

Whereas He has demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities, exceptional intelligence and a complete commitment to his students and work.

Whereas While he is a hard working, serious, and reliable educator, he is also very gracious, sociable and able to adapt to our environment.

Whereas The students and faculty at CRLS are deeply grateful for his willingness to give of himself to our school community. now therefore be it

One of his reasons for seeking a Fulbright exchange was "...to widen and deepen my (his) experience in the field of teaching." We believe he has done that and much more. He has made a lasting contribution to CRLS and Cambridge, and we look forward to a possible return in the future.

Resolved that this City Council go on record extending its heartiest congratulations & appreciation to EL Hadji. Sarr for his dedication & commitment to the students & faculty at Cambridge kindergarten and be it further
