

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE

MASSACHUSETTS 02139 • 617-876-6800

Barbara Ackermann
Mayor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS:-

An active and informed electorate is essential to a democratic form of government; and

WHEREAS:-

For over fifty years, the League of Women Voters has encouraged active participation in government by all of the citizens of this Commonwealth, informing them of governmental issues of concern to them; and

WHEREAS:-

The League of Women Voters distributes nonpartisan information about candidates for public office to Massachusetts voters; and

WHEREAS:-

It is appropriate that we commend the League of Women Voters for its active efforts in behalf of the many citizens of Cambridge; now therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That I, Barbara Ackermann, Mayor of the City of Cambridge do hereby proclaim the period October 5th-11th, 1972 as

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS WEEK IN CAMBRIDGE

And urge all of our citizens to be aware of this event and to also actively take part in this observance.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Barbara Ackermann", is written over a horizontal line.

Barbara Ackermann
Mayor

That Barbara Ackermann, Mayor of the City of Cambridge proclaims the period
October 5th-11th, 1972 as- League of Woman Voters Week in Cambridge-

In City Council

October 2, 1972

Resolutions Approved
October 2, 1972