To the Honorable, the City Council:

In response to Awaiting Report #29 regarding the sewer line problem at 381 Harvard Street, Public Works Coordinator Jeffrey Nutting reports that the City sewer is a trouble-free line and upon inspection on April 29, 1991, was functioning properly.

Property owners in Cambridge are responsible for their sewer lines up until the pipe's connection to the City sewer. In the event that roots are suspected to be the problem with the property owner's pipe, the owner is still responsible as their line is supposed to be structurally sound and impervious.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
City Manager
