

violated this law would encourage other potential violators and undermine rent control. It should, by all means, be defeated.

Just where do you stand on this matter?

Thank you,

Sincerely yours.

Dear Sirs:

My family has lived in Cambridge since before the turn of the century and I have spent most of my life here along with other people of moderate means who depend on a strong rent control law.

It has gotten so that all around me I see rent controlled apartments taken over by various means, by condo buyers, many apparently illegally occupied contrary to the Cambridge law requiring a removal permit, a law that was recently upheld by the State Supreme Court,

Councillor Russell's order to pardon people who have

Comm. from Mrs. N. Greene, 36
Highland Ave. in opposition to the amnesty amendment.
