Resolved SEC to Awardees.

The Governor's New American Appreciation Award program was established to affirm our conviction that immigration is a wise investment for Massachusetts and for America. We believe in publicly honoring the work of those who have chosen to make Massachusetts their new home and those who have welcomed them.

There will be ten honorees: five new Americans whose contribution to Massachusetts has merited recognition, and five native-born Americans whose efforts to help newcomers succeed in Massachusetts have earned appreciation.

We hope you will join us on Saturday, October 16 to proclaim the Commonwealth's pride in its immigrant heritage and its hope for the future.

Please RSVP by Friday, October 1. For more information, please contact Claire McDonough, ext. 341 or Nina Nguyen, ext. 330, Office for Refugees and Immigrants (617) 727-7888.
