

City of Cambridge

3.

Councillor Clinton

IN CITY COUNCIL
February 12, 1973

WHEREAS:

This City Council has adopted orders on two different occasions requesting the City Manager to take the necessary action to secure and safeguard the quarters formerly occupied by the Sullivan Post located on Washington and Windsor Streets.

WHEREAS:

At this time no visible improvements has resulted from the previous orders of the City Council and the building has become a safety hazard to the residents of the area and no report has been received by the City Council as to the course of action being taken to eliminate the continuing nuisance.

THEREFORE BE IT ORDERED:

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the departments concerned to move without delay to take affirmative action to resolve the problem and to submit a report of the action taken by the departments concerned to the City Council prior to February 26, 1973.
