COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: D-Day, June 6, 1944 marks a day in American history of which all free people can be proud; and

WHEREAS: Many Cambridge men and women served their country with honor in World War II; and

WHEREAS: One such veteran, Edward Samp, Election Commissioner, is returning to Normandy to mark his personal experience on this historic day; and

WHEREAS: City Hall employee, Phyllis Vera is also travelling to Normandy to pay tribute to her late veteran husband, Henry "Hank" Vera's, service to his country; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: The City Council wishes to go on record expressing its appreciation for the contributions of these residents, and their families and all other residents and families who contributed, some with their lives, to the great effort of D-Day. Without their efforts, the United States and many European countries would not enjoy the freedom we rejoice in today.

In City Council June 6, 1994.
