May 3 1996

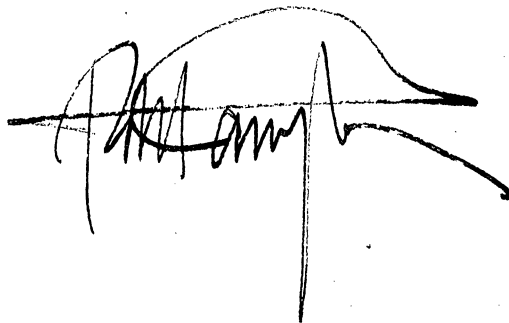

Dear Members of the Cambridge City Council:

I am writing to express my appreciation for your generous action of April 22, in which you congratulated me on the award of the Pulitzer Prize, and for the handsomely mounted and engrossed copy of your resolution, which I have received.

There is no substitute for the good opinion of one's friends and neighbors. I am grateful for the honor you have done me.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
